

Amandip's performance
Metric	Score	Explanation	Abhilash Sharma's Score	Kanchan's Score
Correct Answers	42	Number of correct answers out of the total 50 questions.	46	46
Incorrect Answers	8	Number of incorrect answers out of the total 50 questions.	4	4
Unattempted Questions	0	Number of questions not attempted out of the total 50 questions.	0	0
Critical Thinking Score	75%	Calculated based on performance in assertion-reason and analytical questions. Signifies the ability to understand and analyze complex relationships and implications.	85%	85%
Knowledge Retention Score	68%	Derived from the proportion of correct answers minus incorrect answers to the total number of questions. Reflects retention and recall accuracy.	84%	84%
Concept Clarity Score	70%	Calculated by evaluating performance in questions requiring deep understanding of concepts. Indicates clarity of underlying principles and concepts.	80%	80%
Time Management Score	90%	Based on the distribution of answers across different speed indicators (Superfast, On Time, Slow, On Time but not Correct). Reflects the ability to manage time effectively.	95%	95%

Focus Areas	Recommendations	Action Steps
Accuracy Improvement	- Review changes post-1857, including Government of India Act, administrative restructuring, and impact on Indian governance. - Study details of land revenue systems (Permanent Settlement, Ryotwari, Mahalwari) and their economic consequences. - Practice identifying correct relationships in assertion-reason questions.	- Review incorrect questions and understand the mistakes using Bipin Chandra's old NCERT. - Practice additional questions on these topics under timed conditions. - Use flashcards for key facts and concepts.
Critical Thinking and Analytical Skills	- Focus on developing logical reasoning and understanding cause-and-effect relationships in assertion-reason questions. - Improve ability to analyze historical events and policies critically.	- Engage in exercises that require critical thinking, like solving puzzles and playing strategy games. - Participate in group discussions or debates to explore different viewpoints. - Solve practice papers emphasizing assertion-reason and analytical questions.
Knowledge Retention	- Ensure consistent review of all topics to maintain high retention.	- Schedule regular revision sessions using a study planner. - Use spaced repetition techniques to plan and schedule reviews. - Create mind maps or diagrams to visualize and connect different concepts.
Concept Clarity	- Focus on understanding the core principles behind British administrative and economic policies.	- Read additional reference materials and watch educational videos for deeper insights. - Refer to Bipin Chandra's old NCERT for foundational understanding. - Discuss complex topics with peers or mentors and explain concepts to others.
Time Management	- Balance speed and accuracy during tests.	- Practice time-bound tests to improve pacing. - Develop answering strategies, like tackling easier questions first. - Analyze time spent on each question to identify where time can be saved.
Tips	Action Steps
Regular Practice	- Consistently practice different types of questions to build confidence. - Use varied resources like textbooks, online quizzes, and past papers.
Detailed Review Sessions	- After each test, spend time analyzing each question, especially the incorrect ones. - Understand the rationale behind the correct answers using Bipin Chandra's old NCERT.
Balanced Study Plan	- Create a study plan that includes all subjects and topics. - Allocate time based on difficulty and importance, ensuring comprehensive coverage.
Healthy Study Habits	- Maintain a consistent study schedule with regular breaks. - Ensure adequate sleep, a balanced diet, and physical activity to support cognitive function. - Use relaxation techniques like deep breathing or meditation to manage stress.

Sub-Topical Analysis

Topic Group	Incorrect Questions	Correct Questions	Analysis	Recommendations
Administrative Changes and Policies	1, 3,13	2, 4, 9, 10, 11, 19, 20, 28, 33, 41, 44, 50	Incorrect Questions: Question 1: Misunderstood details about the abolition of the doctrine of lapse and the extent of Indian involvement in the Civil Service. - Question 13: Needs review on the changes in the British Indian Army post-1857, such as the increased proportion of British soldiers and the reorganization of the army to prevent future rebellions. Correct Questions: - Demonstrated a strong understanding of the transfer of power from the East India Company to the British Crown, the introduction of local administrative bodies, and changes in the Indian Civil Service.	Review Topics: - Government of India Act 1858: Focus on its implications and the administrative changes it brought - Indian Civil Service: Study the changes in composition and recruitment post-1857. - British Indian Army post-1857: Understand the reorganization, the increased ratio of British to Indian soldiers, and key policy changes. Local administrative bodies: Review the introduction and functioning of local bodies like municipalities and district boards.
Economic Policies and Their Impact	18, 22, 26, 33, 39	5, 6, 7, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30, 32, 35, 36, 38, 42, 46, 47, 48, 49	Incorrect Questions: Question 18: Lacked understanding of the accessibility and conduct of the Indian Civil Service examination. Question 22: Confusion regarding the unification effect of British social policies. Question 26: Needs deeper understanding of the Ryotwari system and its revenue collection process. Question 33: Mixed up details of the Ryotwari, Mahalwari, and Permanent Settlement systems. Question 39: Needs clarity on the motivations and impacts of British land revenue policies. Correct Questions: Showed a strong grasp of the overall economic policies, including commercialization of agriculture, development of railways, and impacts on traditional industries.	Review Topics: - Indian Civil Service: Understand the examination process, location, and representation of Indians. Ryotwari System: Study the revenue collection process, direct relationship with cultivators, and annual assessment. Land Revenue Systems: Detailed review of the Ryotwari, Mahalwari, and Permanent Settlement systems. Economic Policies: Focus on British motivations, such as making India a supplier of raw materials, and their long-term impacts on Indian agriculture and industries. Commercialization of Agriculture: Understand the shift to cash crops, its benefits and drawbacks, and its impact on Indian farmers. Development of Railways: Study the British motivations, economic benefits, and impact on Indian infrastructure and society.
Foreign Policy and Relations	None	5, 23	Correct Questions: - Demonstrated a good understanding of British foreign policy strategies and their impacts on neighboring regions, such as the buffer state policy towards Afghanistan and the Treaty of Sugauli with Nepal.	Continue to strengthen knowledge on British foreign policy, especially strategies involving Afghanistan, Nepal, Tibet, and Burma.Study British policies towards Tibet and Burma, focusing on treaties and annexations. Review British motivations and strategic interests in maintaining buffer states and controlling neighboring regions.
Social Policies and Impact	3	8, 21, 31, 34, 37, 40, 43, 45	Incorrect Questions: Question 3: Misunderstood the minimal and superficial involvement of Indians in governance and the British motivations behind such policies. Correct Questions: Demonstrated a solid grasp of the impacts of British social policies, including the introduction of Western education, the policy of divide and rule, and social reforms like the abolition of sati.	Review Topics:- British Social Policies: Understand the minimal involvement of Indians in governance and the British strategy behind it. Western Education: Study its introduction, impact on Indian society, and the creation of an educated class. Divide and Rule Policy: Analyze its implementation, objectives, and long-term consequences. - Social Reforms: Focus on reforms like the abolition of sati and their impact on traditional Indian social structures.
Assertion-Reason Questions and Match the Following	18, 26, 33, 39	8, 14, 21, 24, 37, 45	Incorrect Questions: - Question 18, 26, 33, 39: These assertion-reason questions required understanding both the assertion and the reasoning behind British policies. Needs to focus on the cause-and-effect relationships in British policies and their impacts on India. Correct Questions: - Good ability to understand and analyze British policies and their justifications, demonstrated by correct answers in other assertion-reason questions.	Review Topics: - Assertion-Reason Questions: Practice more to improve critical thinking and reasoning skills. Understand the underlying motivations and consequences of British policies. Focus on cause-and-effect relationships in historical events and policies. - Study specific examples of British policies and analyze their impacts on different aspects of Indian society and economy.

